

National demonstration and rally

Save libraries, museums and culture

Saturday 3 November, Central London

We love our libraries and museums, our galleries and theatres – but they're under attack, facing cuts on a massive scale.

If politicians don't act soon, our communities could lose these vital services forever.

Enough is enough. Stand with us and call on MPs to end cuts to our vital cultural services.

Assemble:

11am at The British Library,
Euston Road, London.

March sets off at 12 noon to Parliament Square.
Rally finishes by 4pm.

Find out more at unison.org.uk/savelibrariesdemo

#SaveOurLibraries

Rally Supported by:

